

Experimental

The Hans Tausen ice cap ice core was drilled in the summer of 1995 on a local dome at $82^{\circ} 30' \text{ N}$, $37^{\circ} 28' \text{ W}$, 1271 m a.s.l. on the Hans Tausen ice cap in Peary Land in North Greenland. The core reaches to bedrock at 344.85 m depth.